Celebration of 230th Anniversary

Washington's Encampment

at Skippack Village

TROOPS

FOOD

FREE ADMISSION

FUN FOR KIDS

Saturday, September 29
10am to 5pm

&

Sunday, September 30
11am to 4pm

Indenhofen Farmstead

Corner of Skippack Pike (Route 73) & Evansburg Road in Skippack

DONATION FOR PARKING TO BENEFIT THE SKIPPACK HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Encampment of Revolutionary Troops

Revolutionary fife and drummer will be performing on Saturday between 2:30 & 4:00 pm

- Revolutionary artifact collection of a local researcher on display.
- Walk along with a dowser as he searches the farm for water.
- Collection of toys of the 1700 – 1800's on display.
- A basket-maker will show her craft to kids & adults.
- 1700's printing press demonstration
- A Stone-cutter will be carving old style tombstones! (Sunday)
- Visit with Betsy Ross on Sunday, watch her making a flag. (12-2pm)
- John Ruth, respected author of books on local heritage & Mennonite culture, will tell of the ordeals of Skippack Settlers. (Sat. 1-2pm)

Presented by Skippack Historical Society

Sponsored by Harleysville National Bank

Call 610-584-1166 or visit www.skippack.org for more information.